Dedication

This book is dedicated to all those who struggle in Prayer and sit and wonder why their prayers are not being heard or are they? I myself have been there and now see the reason for unanswered prayer. I didn't have the understanding of how the Bible works. It took many years of searching to find the right path. Remember God loves you very much and wants to hear and answer your prayers.

Special Thanks to

“The LORD is good to those whose hope is in him, to the one who seeks him....”

Lamentations 3:125

There is a paved trail leading to Madison Falls in Olympic National Park (Washington State).

Easily accessible, the trailhead starts right after you enter through the park. The trail bends around the trees, passes over a wooden platform with a view of the creek through the branches. The falls is just around the corner.

Benches sit at the very end – a nice place to watch the water tumble down.

Introduction

This book explains Prayer in a simple way that will help those who struggle with their situations understand why. May it help those to study the Word of God more and see how much they are loved and how God wants to communicate with us each day.

Prayer is talking with God, telling him our hurts, asking for direction and trusting in Him to know that His way is best for us. Always remember He loves you and wants to hear our Prayers. Never give up your answer could be right around the corner.

ASK, SEEK & KNOCK

"What did Jesus mean when He told us to ask, seek, and knock?"

This question has been going over and over in my mind for weeks. I have wondered exactly what it means and is everyone entitled to just ask and have their needs met. I realized that it goes much deeper than what we could ever think. Let's look at the scriptures for a minute.

Matthew 7 is part of what is commonly called the Sermon on the Mount. It's a description of the truly righteous life, an outlining of "the law of Christ" Now many are saying we are not under law anymore but under grace. That is true to a point. It was through HIS GRACE that we have been given the opportunity to serve Him. When Jesus says, "Ask and it will be given to you," He is talking to His followers, those who have committed their life to him and serve Him continually. He sees them as His children and those that ask are His sons and daughters.

Prayer is how we communicate our needs and desires to God. Of course, God already knows what we need way before we ever ask. He wants us to pray to Him and keep in communication with Him at all times. It is like a child they will go to their mother or father and ask for something. Now a good parent will give it to them if they feel it is good for them. So the communication is very important but one thing I feel too is that living righteous before God is so important. How can we ask anything if we are not doing what God tells us to do. That makes no sense to me at all. Now I do know many that feel they are living right but never open the Bible and never Pray. It is almost like they feel by giving their life over and saying that one prayer of repentance is all that is required of them. That is not the case. When we come to Christ and accept Him into our lives, we also are saying that we accept His ways and that we will follow Him no matter what.

You know years ago growing up in church I never knew that, no one ever told me. How sad looking back now and seeing how things were. I was asked if I wanted to accept Jesus into my life and follow Him. I did and yet for me it seemed to end there. I was told to read my Bible and Pray but it ended there too. I would try to read the Bible and yet didn't understand a lot of it. Yes I went to church and heard Bible stories but it seemed to skim the top instead of get right into the meat of the Gospel. When I made mistakes I felt so condemned by others as they felt I should not have done that since I was now a Christian. I didn't understand it all and many times walked away..... NOT from God but from the Church and it's people.

Getting back to Asking, Seeking and Knocking it makes me really think about all of this. Now if we really believed what God is telling us in His Word, the Bible we should be living right... and we should be focused on what He wants us to do and how He wants us to live. Our prayers each day should be for others to come to know Him as we do. When Jesus was asked to teach them how to pray this is what he said.

Matthew 6:9-13

9 After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.

10 Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

11 Give us this day our daily bread.

12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

13 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

How many hours have I wasted in prayer begging God to get me out of my situations or praying for something that wasn't necessarily the right thing to pray for. I realize now that a lot of those prayers were wasted. God made it clear how we should pray.. We should realize that HE is the almighty and we should want His will to be done just like it is in Heaven. We should pray for our DAILY BREAD... doesn't mention anything about steak, shrimp or anything like that does it? Then comes our plea to FORGIVE US our debt as we FORGIVE OTHERS. We are to pray not to be led into TEMPTATION and to be DELIVERED from Evil. Wow, what a great prayer now this sums it up pretty good doesn't it. If our prayers were like this I am sure we would be much happier.

YES we are to pray for others... Here is what I believe we should be praying like.

John 17:9-19 King James Version (KJV)

9 I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them.

11 And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil.

16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

17 Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

18 As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.

Christ is talking about “US” and that is His prayer... We should spend time in prayer to God about our brothers and sisters too.. Asking that God take care of them, Seeking Him about them and keep on doing it.

I talk to so many people in different countries and I hear of such need, we are so blessed here in United States and yet we don't even realize it many times. If we believe we are the family of Christ and are one body then it is our responsibility to pray for the rest of our family, especially those who are suffering for being of the Faith.

Jesus is not saying that believers always get what they ask for—wrong motives, for example, will hinder answers to prayer

James 4:3

Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts.

When are we going to realize that ASKING should not be for selfish reasons. We get carried away with all of this and feel that we have the right to ask for better things, new car, new house, money etc. For many years in Ministry I was struggling with finances and yet there was not a time I went hungry, nor the kids that I cared for. There was never a time that the bills did not get paid. My needs were all met... GOD has promised to take care of us so remember that when you pray... Don't get greedy and think you deserve something great. Having Jesus in your life is the greatest thing you could have. You have been set free from your sins and are on your way to heaven. All the other things are not real important. I know people today who say they serve God and yet if hungry will not eat a peanut butter sandwich, they have to have chicken or some other meat. Now these people are on welfare too getting food stamps... It totally amazes me how there is no gratitude left. People feel they deserve the best of everything. Many who have come to Christ are into prosperity thinking and living, actually I feel bad for them, they are missing out on the real JOY that only Jesus can give. Take away their possessions and they are the most miserable people around.

Jesus went on to say, “Seek, and you will find”
Matthew 7:7. What is it believers ought to be seeking? It is God Himself!

“You have said, ‘Seek my face.’ My heart says to you, ‘Your face, Lord, do I seek’”
Psalm 27:8

“The young lions suffer want and hunger; but those who seek the Lord lack no good thing”
Psalm 34:10

“Seek the Lord and his strength; seek his presence continually!”
Psalm 105:4

“Blessed are those who keep his testimonies, who seek him with their whole heart”
Psalm 119:2

God is not hiding from His children. His heart’s desire is for us to persistently and passionately look for Him all around us, and when we do, He promises He will be found Proverbs 8:17 Seeking is a matter of paying attention with an engaged mind and acute awareness.

Earlier in the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus said to “Seek first his kingdom and his righteousness”

Matthew 6:33

Seeking God’s kingdom means putting God’s plan before our own; seeking God’s righteousness means setting a priority on personal holiness and desiring to be sanctified.

Jesus then said, “Knock and the door will be opened to you” Matthew 7:7. Here, the Lord uses a metaphor for the action a desire produces. If a person needs something from someone behind a door, the most natural thing to do is knock—and keep knocking until the door is opened and the desire is met. In the same way, a believer should pray in faith for God’s will to be done in their life

Luke 18:1

And he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint.

Have you ever got tired of praying? I have and only because I didn't realize that prayer should be a continual thing. Here is an example: Years ago I was living in a very abusive relationship. I prayed constantly for God to get me out of it. Sadly, that was all I did was pray. I didn't do anything else. I lived in that situation leaving GOD to do all the work. I had a choice of leaving many times but FEAR would take hold of me and I didn't go. There would be times when I thought God never heard my prayers so I would stop for a while. I got 'FAINT". Now I realize that if I had more knowledge of God back then I would have stepped out in Faith and made a move.

We can pray all we want but if we see God opening doors and we do not move through them then we will still be in the same situation and things will never change. It took 12 years of my life to realize that. Looking back, I did learn a lot and it has helped many that I counsel as I understand where they are coming from now, as I went through it myself.

One thing though that has changed within me is the realization that PRAYER is communication with God on a constant level. If we believe that He is with us and JESUS lives inside of us, then we should be talking to Him all the time. Asking direction, guidance and giving Him thanks.

Take time to speak with Him. I go for walks and talk constantly with Him. I really don't like these devices that play music, games and now everyone is looking for Pokeman. Wow, I can't believe it all. I saw a couple walking down the street the other day and I had to stop them, both of their heads were down and they were staring at the one phone. YES they were searching for Pokeman... When I spoke with them they were telling me what a great game it was and how that they had walked all over the City chasing him. Oh God help us, satan has taken hold of our youth but not just our youth he now has adults searching in a game. When our minds are taken up with music, games etc. we don't have time to listen to God or His leading. Walk and leave all your gadgets at home and you will see how clear you can think. Maybe some of you have thrown this book across the room by now thinking I am crazy but it is the truth. We need to have quiet time so we can communicate with our Father.

Ask, seek, knock.

Notice the three different senses being considered here.

Asking is verbal; Christians are to use their mouths and petition God in their prayers

Seek, believers are to seek with their minds—this is more than asking; it is a setting of priorities and a focusing of the heart.

Knocking involves physical movement, one in which the Christian takes action.

Although asking and seeking are of great importance, they would be incomplete without knocking. The apostle John said Christians ought not to love in word alone but with actions also 1 John 3:18. In the same way, it's good to pray and seek God, but if one does not also act in ways that are pleasing to God, all is wasted. It's no accident that Jesus said believers should love God with all their heart, soul, strength, and mind Luke 10:27.

More and more I am realizing that the Bible is a Roadmap for Believers to Follow. When you are unsaved, you do not belong to God at all. You are a child of satan, there has to be that change that takes place within you and that only can happen when you give your life over to God. Invite Jesus to come inside of you through the Holy Spirit and believe that Christ died for your sins. THEN and only THEN will you see the Bible clearly and understand it fully. Many read the Bible and pick out parts that suit them but do not follow all of it. My friend, YOU MUST follow all of it or you are just not going to make it. It's like purchasing something that needs assembled. You have all the parts in front of you and don't know one thing about putting it all together. SO, what do you do? You go to the Manuel and read about each part. After reading you start to assemble it and in the end you have a complete item that works. Much like the Bible, You can read it but if you do not ask Christ to come into your life it won't get you too far. I used to read the Bible before I gave my life to Christ and thought it was a good book, but what I did was take Scriptures that suited me and the situation that I was in and live it that way. I really thought I was doing right. Like I said before I really feel I wasn't taught right in the church that I attended. I needed to have been mentored more in how to live a life for Christ. Many these days are so far from living for God and yet they claim all the Bible and all the Promises in their to be their own. They get pretty mad too if you try to tell them things, so I end up just praying that their eyes be opened to the truth.

The commands are followed by promises: “Everyone who asks receives; the one who seeks finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened” Matthew 7:8. God delights in the prayer of faith, and He promises to give us what we need. He has always met my needs... YES there are some other things that would be nice but I have learned to leave it with God and let Him give me what I really need. Sometimes we pray for things in our life that God knows just would not benefit us in any way. We think it would but he sees the whole picture. I remember once someone saying to me that it is like watching a parade. We march in that parade and see who is in front of us and who is behind but God is looking from above and sees the whole parade at one time. He knows the outcome therefore He knows what is best for us all.

Many times I have seen people and myself at one time grab a scripture and run with it. We shout it from the housetops that God is going to do this or that because His word says He will but we tend to forget over and over that there are scriptures that come before and after the one that we are speaking from out mouth. I wanted to put the whole chapter of John down so we could go over it and help you understand it better..

John 14

14 Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

Jesus is telling us here not to be troubled and that if we believe in God we should also believe in Him. Pretty simple huh?

2 In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

Jesus is speaking to those who follow Him and tells us of what His plans are for us. He is going to prepare a place for us.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

Now He is saying that He is going to prepare a place but He will come again so that we can live with him and be with Him always.

4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

5 Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

7 If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

8 Philip saith unto him, Lord, show us the Father, and it sufficeth us.

9 Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Show us the Father?

10 Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.

12 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.

He is saying that IF we believe in Him, the same works that He has done we will do also, because He is going to the Father. To me that is a great scripture as it is telling us that we will be doing the same things if we are IN HIM. Then it goes on to say that IF WE ASK ANYTHING IN HIS NAME, HE WILL DO IT

13 And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

IF WE ARE IN HIM....

14 If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

15 If ye love me, keep my commandments.

He then goes on to tell us “HOW” we can be “IN HIM” If we Love Him, We keep His commandments. Now honestly many don’t understand this. Many feel that they can move mountains, heal the sick, raise the dead and yet they are NOT IN HIM... They are too caught up in themselves and what they think should be the way to accomplish what God has told us to do. It is so sad, I meet so many great people that have no CLUE at all about showing love to others and doing what God has commanded us to do. I am always hearing the phrase, WE ARE UNDER GRACE... Yes we are but we sure don’t leave out the Old Testament and not pay any attention to what it is saying to us. CHRIST came to FULFILL THE LAW... In other words when Christ died on the Cross it all was completed. HE COMPLETED IT... Now we have the whole picture of our life and how we should live it. Now I can hear you say now, well the Old Testament is not for us... If you study you will see that The Old Testament has so much to do with the New Testament. I know I was totally amazed when I started to study the whole Bible.

16 And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

Jesus is saying here that he is going to PRAY to His Father that the Comforter will be sent to live with us as He is leaving us. Honestly I don't know what I would do without the Holy Spirit. I remember my Grandfather, who was a great preacher say that not enough was talked about regarding "The Holy Spirit". He is a person in Spirit that lives within us. Helping us to cope, giving direction, showing us when we do wrong through conviction and giving us peace. We need to see things in a different perspective sometimes.

17 Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

I love this scripture, The Spirit of Truth is for us as believers, who have Him living inside of us. Many times I hear people say “They should not live that way, They should know better” BUT if they do not have the Holy Spirit within them their eyes are blinded... Am I right? Many times we judge people who have never met Jesus this way and we really shouldn't do it.

18 I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you.

19 Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also.

20 At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.

21 He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

Now here it states that we are to keep His commandments, wow, you didn't think that was in the Bible did you? YES it is ... So here is how it is .. IF we keep His commandments, Love Him, then we will be able to ASK anything in His name and He will do it. Does that make sense to you? It does to me.

22 Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?

23 Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

Keep His words....

24 He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.

25 These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.

26 But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

27 Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

28 Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I.

29 And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe.

30 Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me.

31 But that the world may know that I love the Father; and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

I put the whole chapter in because it gives us a better picture of it all... Just picture Jesus sitting talking to you these words.. It will help you understand so much better.

When we have a RELATIONSHIP with GOD, we are able to ASK, SEEK and KNOCK. It is pretty hard to ask for something from someone we don't even know, am I right?

We have to have that fellowship through prayer. Spend time THANKING HIM instead of ASKING all the time, the more we PRAISE HIM and spend quality time with Him the more we will see our real needs and quit asking for foolish things that really aren't important. I often think if we REALLY BELIEVED that Jesus was coming back, we would be spending hours upon hours asking Him to change us, to make us into a person that others would see HIS LOVE within us and thereby give their lives to CHRIST. Is your family all saved? Well if they aren't then that is one of the greatest things you could ask for in prayer..that your family come to Christ. Forget the Big Fancy House and Fancy Car, what about their SOULS? I have lost many friends to death and some have known God and others I am not sure about but what it has done to me is make me see the importance of praying for others. That is why I started a Prayer Chain in our Ministry to have a place where people could send their requests and have many praying. PRAYER is good, it is a relationship that you will never regret having with our Father. We pray to God, OUR FATHER in the name of JESUS because JESUS paid the price for our sins.

I hope this book is simple for you to read and helps you understand Prayer a bit better. Like I have said there was many years I kept asking for things that were not important and wondered “WHY” my prayers were not heard. Maybe my prayers were just too selfish and only surrounded about my greeds instead of my needs. Take a few minutes today and think about your prayers. Do you BEG GOD to answer, DO YOU PLEAD, DO YOU EVEN GET UPSET WITH HIM? I know some of you do. It is simply asking and seeking Him in every situation and of course keeping ourselves HUMBLE... Now that is another story.....

If you think you are humble you probably are not. Don't get upset with me please. Let me explain

2 Chronicles 7:14

“If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.”

I really love this scripture... WE ARE HIS PEOPLE if we have asked for forgiveness and are following Him. We are called by HIS NAME, He tells us to HUMBLE OURSELVES, then PRAY, then SEEK His face but also to TURN from our wicked ways.. now when we do that here is what HE will do... HE WILL HEAR US, FORGIVE US and HEAL our land.

How can we ask for things if we feel we deserve them... now that is not a humble spirit. I was shocked a few months ago to listen to a well known preacher. She travels the world and I have always enjoyed her preaching. UNTIL I heard her say “Many of you are complaining about me buying my own JET, well I am here to tell you .... I DESERVE IT” wow those words have stuck with me ever since I heard them. We don't deserve anything at all. Many act like they were crucified on the cross for our sins instead of Jesus. Sadly we have so much to learn don't we?

One woman I admire is Mother Theresa, she was humble and gave of herself to help others. She didn't have much but it wasn't important to her.

DEAR JESUS, help me to spread Thy fragrance everywhere I go. Flood my soul with Thy spirit and love. Penetrate and possess my whole being so utterly that all my life may only be a radiance of Thine. Shine through me and be may feel Thy presence in my soul. Let them look up and see no longer me but only Jesus. Stay with me and then I shall begin to shine as you shine, so to shine as to be a light to others.

That should be our prayer, don't you think?

How do you PRAY?

Do you SEEK GOD'S FACE?

Do you do what He tells you to do?

Are you living right?

Do you follow the Commandments?

Do you love others?

I could go on and on with questions about "US" and how we do things but I really believe it is time for us to take a look at "US" and see what needs to be changed instead of focusing on what we need.

I remember once discussing a situation with my X husband. It was getting a bit heated and he got up from the table and shoved the chair. My anger flared a bit at him doing this and I said. "IF GOD WANTED TOO, he could send someone to this door with a quart of milk". He looked at me like I was crazy. See, we had just moved there and it was miles out in the Country. We knew no one and had no neighbors. All of a sudden there was a knock at the door. Now my kitchen was at the front of the house as this was an old school house that we had rented and it had been renovated. He went to the door and this is what I heard "We didn't have anything to bring you and we wanted to welcome you to our neighborhood, so we brought you a quart of Goat's milk". I could not believe my ears, we welcomed them in and told the story of how we had been discussing what God could and could not do. We all laughed and became very good friends but you know what happened to me? I never forgot that day, GOD can do anything and will do it if we just put our trust in Him. There is nothing greater than knowing our prayers go up to Him and He hears us because we are His children and He loves us. Remember when we ask and nothing happens that is when we just TRUST HIM for that situation ... Thank Him for all that He has done and for what He is going to do in your life. He has your way all planned and it is up to us to SIMPLY TRUST Him, sure go before Him and Ask, but always remember the “WHY AM I ASKING?” I have got to that place where I KNOW that He is doing everything for my good and if I ask, which I do, spend time in the Word and trust Him that my life will be full of peace and my steps will be ordered of the Lord.

When you read the scriptures at the end of this book you will see many times people have taken their needs before God... They have poured out their heart to Him. Most have had a wonderful relationship with Him and know that He will hear their prayers.

I pray this book has helped you understand a bit more about God and His ways. I pray it has helped you understand prayer in a better way. Please contact us if you have any questions, we will be glad to write you back. I have added Scriptures here for those who are doing studies on Prayer, read them and be encouraged. Memorize what you can and reach out to others...God Bless You...Anne

SCRIPTURES ON PRAYER ..

Matthew 7:7 Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you:

Matthew 7:8 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

Luke 11:9 And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

Luke 11:10 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

2 Samuel 7:27 For thou, O Lord of hosts, God of Israel, hast revealed to thy servant, saying, I will build thee an house: therefore hath thy servant found in his heart to pray this prayer unto thee.

1 Kings 8:28 Yet have thou respect unto the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O Lord my God, to hearken unto the cry and to the prayer, which thy servant prayeth before thee to day:
